Looking Closely at Art

The Dalles Art Center

220 E 4th st

The Dalles, OR 97058

06:00 PM - 07:00 PM PST

Ellen Potter, 541-296-4759

director@thedadlesartcenter.org

February 4th, 11th, 18th and March 4th, 11th, 18th, 25th

Join us this winter for Looking Closely at Art, a thoughtful seven-week exploration of how and why we connect with visual art. Designed for curious beginners and seasoned art lovers alike, this series builds a strong foundation in the principles of art design, composition, and style. Participants will learn how these elements shape our experience of art and discover new ways to observe, interpret, and enjoy the work around us.

With that groundwork in place, the class will move into focused sessions on landscapes, abstract art, portraiture, and photography. Each week offers guided conversation and close looking, helping you deepen your understanding of artistic choices and expand your capacity to see with intention.

No previous art experience is needed, just an interest in learning and a desire to engage more fully with art.

Sign up for the entire series, or choose a specific program that interests you!

About the Instructor

Kerry Cobb teaches adult education courses in art history, art appreciation, and literature, bringing an accessible and engaging approach to every subject she leads.

She previously served as Executive Director of the Columbia Center for the Arts in Hood River and has long been an advocate for community arts education.

Weekly Agenda

Feb 4: Visual Perception

Feb 11: Composition in Art

Feb 18: Elements of Style

Feb 25: (No Class)

March 4: Looking Closely at Portraits

March 11: Looking Closely at Landscapes

March 18: Looking Closely at Abstract Art

March 25: Looking Closely at Photography

February 5, 2026

Marcus Swift and Rian Beach are co-founders of The Dalles Overground. The Dalles Overground (TDO) is a local, all-volunteer 501(c)3 nonprofit that brings unique music, arts, and culture to The Dalles. Past TDO events include live performances by internationally known recording artists, an all-school assembly at Chenowith Elementary and community music event by an award-winning Cree Style Round Dance and Pow-Wow drummer, a live film and music performance about Icelandic ravens at the Discovery Center, and the Spooktober halloween movie festival at the Granada Theatre.

TDO Board members also participate in local volunteer activities like The Dalles Community Clean up and creating a pop-up food pantry for community members in need.

Rian (who is also the co-founder of Jackalope Jamboree in Pendleton, Oregon) and Marcus will join us to discuss the latest TDO endeavor, presented alongside the Performing Arts Initiative: The Dalles Hoot - a music, art, and culture festival from March 6-8, 2026. The Hoot will feature three days of live music from over 15 national, regional, and local artists at four unique venues in downtown The Dalles - all within walking distance. The shows will be free to allow all families and individuals to join in the fun.

In addition to the music, a variety of community and small business events will take place

throughout The Dalles all weekend and promoted to attendees of The Hoot, including a community fun run, Coffee with the Songwriter, Yoga + Beer, historic tours, Ecstatic Dancing,

Children's Theater at the Civic, and other local small business events and specials.

Songwriting: Finding Your Voice
The Dalles Art Center
220 E 4th st
The Dalles, OR 97058
07:00 PM - 08:30 PM PST
Ellen Potter, 541-296-4759
director@thedadlesartcenter.org
Thursdays, 7:00–8:30 PM | 6 Week Program

Unlock your creative potential and bring your personal stories to life through music in this beginner-focused songwriting course with accomplished musician and songwriter Barry Crannell. Over six weeks, you'll explore how to craft authentic, compelling songs that reflect your unique voice.

What You'll Learn:

The building blocks of a song: melody, lyrics, and structure

Common song forms and how to use them effectively

Techniques for writing freely and without judgment

The art of authentic storytelling and connecting with your audience

How to refine and rewrite your work to create polished songs

Through guided prompts, collaborative exercises, and individualized support, you'll develop at least three original songs by the end of the course. Bring a notebook, a recording device (your phone works perfectly!), and your instrument of choice, and be ready to dive into the creative process.

About Your Instructor:

Barry has been immersed in music from his early days in garage bands to his performances spanning folk, rock, bluegrass, and Irish traditional styles. A veteran of the Marines, Barry honed his discipline and creativity while performing and teaching guitar in Eugene, Oregon.

Encouraged by producer Craig Carothers and mentored by acclaimed songwriter Lisa Aschmann, Barry has earned accolades in national and international songwriting contests, including the Kerrville New Folk Song Contest and Talent Is Timeless Songwriting Contest. His lyrics have been featured in American Songwriter Magazine. For over 20 years, he has taught guitar and introductory songwriting across the Pacific Northwest, emphasizing creativity, authentic expression, and the development of each student's unique musical voice.

Currently, Barry performs and co-writes with his wife, fellow songwriter Julianna Waters. Their collaborative song “Don’t Shoot the Messenger” received Honorable Mention in the Talent Is Timeless Songwriting Contest.

Bring your stories to life! Discover your voice and write the songs only you can tell.

Only 10 spots available! Get your ticket while they last.

Poetry Open Mic: Voices of the Elements

The Dalles Art Center

220 E 4th st

The Dalles, OR 97058

07:00 PM - 09:00 PM PST

Ellen Potter, 541-296-4759

director@thedadlesartcenter.org

Experience an evening of poetry, community, and creative expression at TDAC’s first-ever Poetry Open Mic, hosted by local poet Laurel Kirby. Inspired by our current exhibition, Elemental: Earth, Air, Water, Fire, Spirit, this gathering invites writers of all ages and experience levels to share original work connected to the natural forces that shape our world, or pieces that speak directly to their inner spirit.

Poets are welcome to read several pieces, depending on poem length and the number of participants. Listeners are warmly encouraged to attend and enjoy the many voices and perspectives within our community.

This promises to be a thoughtful and uplifting evening, celebrating the power of language and the stories held within the elements.

Participation, whether as a poet or a listener, is free of charge. We hope you’ll join us in experiencing the artistry of written and spoken word!

Winter Landscape Plein Air Painting at the Columbia Gorge Discovery Center

Columbia Gorge Discovery Center

01:00 PM - 04:00 PM PST

Ellen Potter, 541-296-4759

director@thedallesartcenter.org

Experience the beauty of the winter Gorge from the warmth of the Discovery Center's grand, river-facing windows. This February program brings the spirit of plein air painting indoors, offering artists a chance to observe and capture the subtle browns, whites, and atmospheric tones of the season without braving the cold.

Led by Portland artist Jinnet Powel, this acrylic class invites participants to slow down, study the landscape, and approach winter painting as both creative exploration and a form of quiet meditation. Jinnet will guide students through two foundational plein air techniques: using preliminary thumbnail sketches to clarify composition, and working with a limited palette to build luminous, compelling winter scenes.

This program takes place in the Discovery Center's naturally lit lobby in front of their floor-to-ceiling windows, making it an ideal environment for direct observation and artistic focus. Your ticket includes full-day admission to the museum, allowing you to enjoy its exhibits before or after the class.

To learn more about the instructor, visit www.jinnetpowel.com.

07:00 PM - 09:00 PM PST

Mary Stocks, (541) 298-8533

tdcivicauditorium@gmail.com

Event by The Dalles Civic Auditorium and Icon's Of Rock Tribute Show

323 E 4th St, The Dalles, OR, United States, Oregon 97058

Get ready for an unforgettable night with Icons of Rock live at The Dalles Civic! Experience legendary classic rock up close and in person, where the energy is real and the vibes are electric. From the dark intensity of Ozzy Osbourne and the powerhouse anthems of Pat Benatar, to the rebellious edge of Joan Jett, the swagger of Billy Idol, and the arena-shaking sound of Van Halen—this show delivers it all. Sing along to the country-rock crossover hits of Shania Twain, feel the thunder of AC/DC, and crank it up with the glam rock punch of Poison.

Whether you're a lifelong rock fan or just love great music, this is a night packed with powerful vocals, epic guitar riffs, and nonstop rock 'n' roll. Don't miss it!

The Poetry Wheel
The Dalles Art Center
220 E 4th St, The Dalles, OR
The Dalles, OR 97058
06:00 PM - 08:00 PM PST
Ellen Potter, 541-296-4759
director@thedadlesartcenter.org

The Poetry Wheel is a six-week journey into the ever-turning world of poetry; where inspiration spins in and out like a revolving door. Each week, participants will explore a different poetic form, study compelling examples, and engage in generative writing exercises designed to help uncover their unique voices.

Built on curiosity and craft, the class invites students to read, write, listen, and reflect - again and again - recognizing that poems are elusive creatures, much like thoughts, memories, and dreams. The Poetry Wheel offers a space to learn how to coax these moments into the light.

By the end of the course, participants will have a collection of poem drafts in six distinct forms; each one a new spoke on their creative wheel.

This 6 week program will run on Wednesdays, from 6:00 PM to 8:00 PM.

About the Instructor:

Julianna Waters holds an MFA in Creative Writing from the Rainier Writing Workshop. Her work has appeared in numerous literary journals, including CRAFT and The Bellingham Review. Two of her short stories were featured in the speculative fiction anthology A Dark and Stormy Night, and her writing can also be found in Falling Star Review, Four and Twenty Magazine, and American Songwriter Magazine.

Waters has served as a Writer in Residence at the Anderson Arts Center in Red Wing, Minnesota, and at Hypatia-in-the-Woods in Shelton, Washington. Julianna formerly taught writing at the Sitka Center for Art and Ecology and is the founder and facilitator of The Poetry Wheel, a process-focused poetry workshop.

She lives with her husband and their Pomeranian in Hood River, Oregon, where she writes, weaves, walks, and makes music along the life-giving shores of the Columbia River.
